

EU-data protection regulation - DSGVO

data protection declaration

Privacy policy after article 13 and 14 DSGVO

> We process your personal data the under following categories:

contact information, contract data, Clearing data, ordering information, master

...

- Contract: the provided data are related to the contract or to the execution of the order and fulfillment of our obligations under this contract .

Specially it will be the preparation of offers, to execute service work and orders, delivery, processing of claims and repair work, warranty or guarantee, to protect your legal interests over third parties.

Without this data we are not able to fulfill the contract

- Statutory commitment: we must process your datas due to statutory liabilities and legal requirements

E.g. tax regulations, work and social rules customs regulations (U34), etc., to provide. the statutory required documents

> We save your data for the time of our business cooperation and additionally for the time we have to keep the documents according to the legal requirements.

> We give your data also on the following receiver or recipient:

Tax advisor, banks subcontractor suppliers...

> We use your data in our interest to process our work. You have generally the right of objection, if you have reasonable interest based on your special situation.

> You have generally the right of information, correction, deletion, constraint data portability. For any of these points please contact our data protection manager.

„ARMATECH” Sp. z o.o.
ul. Wał Miedzeszyński 630
03-994 Warszawa
tel: (22) 54 52 800
fax.(22) 54 52 888
<http://www.armatech.com.pl>

-
- Your data are not used for advertising purposes and also not for statistical analysis or for promotional purposes. We send no information mails or periodic newsletter.

 - If you believe that the processing of your data is against the privacy regulation or your privacy will be hurt by another way please contact our privacy protection manager. If clarification is not possible you have the right to ask the data protection authority to settle the matter